

CONFIDENTIALITY UNDERTAKING

for enquiries about yachts and superyachts

Norman Nammert, insurance broker, and NAMMERT Assekuradeur GmbH, both Karl-Marx-Straße 4, 15711 Königs Wusterhausen, Germany (together “NAMMERT”)

given to

Name, company or project name

Yacht or project

1 What is protected

All information NAMMERT receives in connection with your enquiry, the market submission and the placing of insurance: details of the yacht, owner, owning company, beneficiaries, crew, itinerary, valuables on board and claims history, whether given orally, in writing or electronically (“confidential information”).

2 What we use it for

NAMMERT uses confidential information solely to review, submit, place and service insurance cover for you.

3 Disclosure only with your consent

We pass confidential information to insurers and others involved in a risk (co-insurers, reinsurers, surveyors) only after your consent in text form, only to the extent required and, if you wish, without names under a project name. We pass nothing to any other third party.

4 Who has access

Access is limited to people at NAMMERT who need it for your enquiry and are bound to confidentiality.

5 Nothing said outside

NAMMERT will not name you, your yacht or our work together as a reference or in advertising, press or social media, nor in anonymised form that allows conclusions to be drawn.

6 Exceptions

These duties do not apply to information that is or becomes public without our involvement, that we lawfully knew beforehand or that we lawfully receive from third parties. If a law, court or authority requires disclosure, we disclose only what is required and tell you beforehand where permitted.

7 Return and deletion

At your request, or if no engagement follows, we return or delete documents unless statutory retention duties apply. Personal data is processed under the General Data Protection Regulation.

8 Duration

This undertaking applies from signature without time limit, including after any engagement ends.

9 Law and jurisdiction

German law applies. Place of jurisdiction, where legally permitted, is the registered office of NAMMERT Assekuradeur GmbH. If language versions differ, the German version prevails.
